If You Take a Mouse to the Movies

After he strings the popcorn, he will want to hang it on a tree.

When his ornaments are done, he will want to hang them on the tree.

You will need to buy him a tree.

After hanging the ornaments, he will notice his popcorn string is missing.

On the way to buying a tree, he will see a snowman and want to make one of his own.

So he will want to make another string for his tree.

After making his own snowman, he will want to build a fort.

If you give him some popcorn, he'll want to string it.

And chances are, if you give him the popcorn to string,

If you take a mouse to the movies, he will ask for some popcorn.

Playing outside in the fort will make him cold so he will want a blanket.

He will want to go to the movies again.

Making him nice and cozy in the blanket will make him want to sing Christmas carols.

He will ask for some paper, scissors, glitter and glue.

Singing Christmas carols will remind him of his Christmas tree, so he will want to make some ornaments.
