

Name _____

Date _____

Cut out the sentences below. Then carefully place them in order according to the events in the story.

The Lonely Scarecrow watched the animals play all spring but they never came near him.

The leaves fell from the trees and the animals hurried to their burrows.

The swaying wheat grew taller and taller each day and the scarecrow felt marooned.

The combine came and harvested the wheat.

The Lonely Scarecrow was in the middle of the field all by himself wishing that the birds and other animals would be his friends.

The animals were not friends with the scarecrow because they were afraid of him.

It snowed so heavily that winter that it covered the scarecrow entirely. He no longer looked scary.

The animals played by the scarecrow because he looked friendly now.

Even with the snow gone, the animals stayed and played with the scarecrow.

The snow melted.